This agreement may be amended by the mutual consent of Worcester Polytechnic Institute and the parties hereto, during (his) (her) lifetime.

If changed circumstances should at some future time cause the continuation of this project to be inappropriate or impractical, and the donor is not living or not able to consent to an amendment, then the Institute will redesignate the purpose of these funds and the distributions therefrom to academic scholarships.

The information you will provide will be used for Institute business and will not be released unless required by law. To review your record, contact the Office of Development & Alumni Relations, 100 Institute Road, Worcester, MA 01609. A portion of all gifts is used to defray the costs of administering these funds. All gifts are tax deductible as prescribed by law.

All pledges must be completed within 5 years.
