

LAYLA ROSE

123 Boyton Street
Worcester, MA 01609
rose@wpi.edu • (508) 123-4567

OBJECTIVE

Summer internship in public policy

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in International Studies

Worcester Polytechnic Institute, Worcester MA

May 2009

GPA: 3.2/4.0

Related Courses: Introduction to American Social History, Introduction to the Study of Foreign Policy and Diplomatic History, Law and Society in America

PROJECTS

Interactive Qualifying Project, Windhoek, Namibia

March-May 2008

“Rainwater Harvesting in Informal Settlements of Windhoek, Namibia”

- Collaborated with informal settlement community to develop and install pilot rainwater collection system
- Developed educational material to continue program to achieve a sustainable supply chain of necessary materials

Humanities and Arts Project, London, England

October - December 2007

- Researched and composed paper on Charles Dickens’ portrayal of women in novels

EXPERIENCE

Congressional Summer Intern, New Haven, CT

June - August 2007

Rep. Rosa DeLauro (CT-03)

- Researched citizen rights based on submitted inquiries
- Assisted staff members with casework and special projects by gathering data and summarizing key findings via memos, documents, and presentations

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Director of Philanthropy, Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority

May 2008 - Present

- Organized teeter totter-a-thon and other events to raise awareness and donations for juvenile diabetes
- Monitored community service of all 60 members resulting in 3000 hours

Chair of Public Relations, Student Government Association

September 2007-May 2008

- Raised awareness on community events to student body by designing new campaign