Global Projects Program Policies and Procedures
Project Work Vacation Day Policy

You may not take vacation days off from your project work, even if you have the permission of your project mentor/liaison. If you have an urgent family or academic or job related need to travel away from the project site on a project work day, consult with the advisor in residence (if none, the Center Director of your center) before making any travel plans.