Needs Addressed in/by the Proposed Policy

- The need for WPI to have a single clear Research Conduct Policy;
 - Faculty-approved policy (January 2014)
 - Board-approved policy (December 2014)
- } Reconcile...
- The need for the Research Misconduct Policy to apply to faculty, staff, and students;
 - The need to allow the Institution to take all appropriate interim actions to protect public health, federal funds and equipment, and the integrity of the research process;
 - The need to conform to the accepted standard of proof for a finding of research misconduct;
 - The need to allow allegations of research misconduct to be raised by any means of communication;
 - The need to assure that investigators have no conflicts of interest with the Respondent, the Complainant, or the witnesses;
 - The need to be more explicit about the content, timing, and circumstances of required reporting.

Procedures: Overview

- Initial Assessment

- by VPR (or VPR-appointed fact-finder)
- to determine if allegations fall within the policy
 - If not, dismissed
- concludes within 5 days of receiving allegation

- Inquiry (must begin within 30 days after Initial Assessment)

- Inquiry Committee formed (three fact-finders appointed by VPR)
- Notice given to Respondent
- Inquiry Committee reports to VPR
 - whether to proceed
 - if so, based on a reasonable belief that Research Misconduct may have occurred
- VPR recommends to Provost whether to proceed
- Provost decides whether to proceed
 - if not, dismissed
 - if so, Provost must document decision to proceed if Inquiry Committee voted otherwise
 - If so, Provost must send notice to proceed and Inquiry Committee report to funding agency
- Inquiry concludes within 60 days of its initiation

Procedures: Overview (continued)

- Investigation (must begin within 21 days after Inquiry)
 - Investigation Committee formed:
 - five faculty members appointed by SOF and Chair of FRC
 - Notice given to Respondent
 - Investigation Committee reports to VPR:
 - whether Research Misconduct has occurred;
 - severity and suggested disciplinary action (if any);
 - based on definition of Research Misconduct and Standard of Proof
 - VPR recommends to Provost:
 - whether Research Misconduct has occurred;
 - disciplinary action (if any)
 - Provost decides:
 - whether Research Misconduct has occurred;
 - disciplinary action (if any)
 - Provost must document finding of research misconduct and/or disciplinary action if either differs from Investigation Committee conclusions
 - VPR must send final Investigation Committee report to funding agency
 - Investigation concludes within 120 days of its initiation

Appeals

- Sanctions may be appealed:
 - for all sanctions other than revocation of tenure:
 - to the President
 - final decision by President (in consultation with the Provost and SOF) within 30 days
 - for revocation of tenure
 - to the Board of Trustees
 - Chair of Board and SOF appoint a Faculty committee of five members
 - Faculty committee reports to Board Chair
 - final decision by Board Chair within 30 days of receiving report
- Findings of Research Misconduct may be appealed to the President:
 - when procedural violations are alleged that could have affected the outcome
 - when the Investigation Committee finds no misconduct but the Provost finds that misconduct was committed
 - final decision by President (in consultation with the Provost and SOF) within 30 days
- Appeals must be filed within two weeks of Provost's decision

Key Modifications Incorporated from Faculty-Input

- Reorganized and formatted for clarity
 - Including overview of process and timelines
- Clarified that Respondent can have legal counsel throughout the Inquiry and Investigation
- Defined “impartial” and “unbiased” and explicitly required that all participants at all stages of the process must be such
- Added the requirement that the Provost must document reasons for a finding of research misconduct and/or for any disciplinary action if either differs from Investigation Committee conclusions
- Added appeals of findings of research misconduct (to the President)
 - when there is an alleged violation of procedure (substantive)
 - when the Provost finds that the Respondent committed research misconduct but the Investigation Committee does not
- Many other detailed suggestions...
