

The WPI Department of Mathematical Sciences and the WPI Student Chapter of the Association for Women in Mathematics (AWM) are excited to announce

Sonia Kovalevsky Day 2025

An Empowering Day for Middle School Girls Who Love Math

When: Saturday, April 12, 2025, 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

Where: Salisbury Labs on WPI's campus

Who: 6th, 7th, and 8th grade girls with interest in math

In honor of the first woman to obtain her doctorate in mathematics, Sonia Kovalevsky Days (SK Days) at WPI aim to bolster our participants' passion and enthusiasm for mathematics in a supportive environment, while meeting girls in the New England area who share similar interests and, of course, having fun!

SK Day 2025 will provide an interactive experience for participants to engage in math activities led by current WPI students and faculty, lunch, and presentations by women leaders in STEM, including a keynote talk by a woman mathematician.

For more information and to register to participate, please visit:

<https://www.wpi.edu/news/calendar/events/sonia-kovalevsky-day>

Space is limited, so please register early (no later than Sunday, March 30)!

We hope you will be able to join us!

Please contact gr-ma-skday@wpi.edu with any questions.

SK Day 2025 is supported by a grant from the Women's Impact Network.

WPI

