

China's Maritime Strategy and Sea Force

Andrew Erickson

Thursday, October 30, 2025

4:00, SL305

China under Xi Jinping has become a great maritime power, the world's largest navy numerically in every category. This presentation discusses China's sea force and how Xi seeks to use the sea in the face of dangerous shifting global dynamics.

Dr. Andrew Erickson, Visiting Fellow, Harvard Fairbank Center for Chinese Studies; Prof of Strategy, Center for Strategic Studies Institute, US Naval War College

WPI

