

How Well Do You Know WPI?

Across

4. Program that points first-years in the right direction (acronym).
10. The year it all began.
11. The name of this spring celebration tells you where to find it.
13. Infrastructure named for WPI's sixth president.
14. Looking for this secret society? Check the tomb.
15. His initials matched his hircine avocation.
16. Tungsten Phosphorus Iodine, in the Periodic Table.
17. For the son of the first Washburn Shops supervisor, it was his castle.
18. Will you get backtalk from this student group with a palindromic acronym?
19. A chapeau for a well-dressed WPI first-year.
21. The prize of the freshman-sophomore rivalry.

Down

1. It's customary to learn about WPI history at this April event.
2. A chill seasonal fair for students.
3. A day for remembering our origins and petting goats.
5. A tin peddler from Templeton.
6. Tower topper with symbol taken from the WPI seal.
7. The English translation for this literally means learning and skilled art.
8. It begins, "e to the x!"
9. Appeared weekly from 1908 to 1973, and now it's back.
12. Undergraduate Commencement is nearly done when you hear this song.
20. Through this, students demonstrate they can complete professional-level work (acronym).