

Pride Survey of Gordon Library Resources 2017

Does your campus have a significant number of books/periodicals in the campus library/libraries that speak to the experiences of:

Our library does provide significant resources in all of the following areas. We are mindful of these topics and consciously collect in these areas. Our Summon search tool that searches across most of the library's resources provides access to thousands of journal articles, newspaper paper articles, streaming video and other media covering these topics. While it is challenging to get exact counts on the numbers of each type of source, the following are the best numbers we have been able to determine. All numbers are gathered from searches in the library's Voyager catalog.
