

Steve Halstedt '68

HERBERT F. TAYLOR AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE TO WPI

Steve Halstedt, through your dedication and leadership, you are leaving a lasting legacy at your alma mater. We are grateful to count you among our most ardent supporters.

Your involvement with WPI began with such activities as Class Agent, Regional Council representative, and Reunion Committee volunteer. Over the years since your graduation, you have become ever more deeply engaged in the life of your alma mater. You have been a vital organizing force for alumni in your home state of Colorado, galvanizing them into an active Colorado Alumni Chapter. You and your wife, Susan, have hosted chapter events in your home and are regulars at chapter outings to Red Sox-Rockies games, the Denver Museum of Nature and Science, and the annual chapter summer social.

As a WPI trustee, you have helped guide the university at the highest levels. You have given generously of your time and expertise to nearly every trustee committee: Academic Planning, Advancement, Budget and Finance, Executive Compensation, Investments, Nominations, Physical Facilities, Student Affairs, Technology, and Gateway Park.

Notably, you have played a key role in WPI's current $200 million fundraising endeavor, if...The Campaign to Advance WPI. As part of the National Campaign Cabinet, you helped lead the quiet phase of the campaign to a successful public launch with over $112 million toward the university's ambitious goal. You continue to help guide the public phase of the campaign toward success as part of the National Campaign Advancement Committee.

Through your service as a chapter leader, trustee, and campaign volunteer, you know firsthand the importance of alumni support for WPI. Through your generous support of endowed scholarships, the Annual Fund, and capital projects, you are a member of the President's Circle, WPI's leadership group of annual donors, and the Presidential Founders, which recognizes lifetime giving to WPI.

In 1998, you received the Robert H. Goddard Award for Outstanding Professional Achievement. Today, the WPI Alumni Association is proud to recognize you for your extraordinary commitment to the university with the Herbert F. Taylor Award for Distinguished Service to WPI.