Be Well Checklist:

- We know that for many, these are challenging times. Here are some words of inspiration from Robbie Oleynick, Class of 2024. “Unfortunately, due to an equipment malfunction, this ride has been temporarily shut down. Please remain seated while we bring the ride back online. Thank you.” Maybe this has happened to you. Anticipation and thrill abruptly brought to a halt. Seconds feel like minutes, minutes feel like hours, and you feel like an eternity has passed since things felt normal. And there’s nothing you can do to be set back in motion besides making things worse. Do you feel stuck? Do you feel like the momentum is gone? I certainly do....read more now.

- Registration for WPI summer classes opens 2/15. With classes 50% off, pick which ones you’re interested in taking now using BannerWeb.

- Zoom fatigue is real. Here are some ideas to help lessen the feeling. The library’s mindfulness & destress guide (which include coloring, animal live cams, games, and more) might help. Check out WPI’s Be Well Together free mindfulness and yoga offerings.

- Join Study SMART, a time to study virtually with peers and get to know classmates. Learn more and check it out.

- Use your resources including office hours, TAs/PLAs, MASH, tutoring, the Writing Center, coaching by Academic Advising, and more.

- Join us for Open Space! See what happened on 1/19 and 1/26 and get ready to join us at the next event: March 3, April 7, and May 5, 3-5pm ET. Our Open Space events are times for the WPI community to share experiences, get creative, have voices heard, and make a difference.
Each week, you'll receive this email to support and guide you through the process of virtual learning. In the meantime, if you have a question related to academics and are having trouble finding the answer, look at our FAQ page or email us at UndergradStudies@wpi.edu or Virtual@wpi.edu.
