Global Fair

September 8-17, 2020

Welcome to the 2020 Global Fair!

You're on your way to beginning the exciting adventure of applying, preparing for, and completing an off-campus project!

Here's how you can make the most of your time:

- Develop a plan and attend as many events as you can Take into consideration types of projects, terms, costs, and any other questions you may have.
- Make note of sites that you would like to learn more about on eProjects
More information about each site is available on WPI's eProjects portal at eprojects.wpi.edu.
- Review next steps for the application process
This passport will outline the steps you need to explore, prepare and apply!
IQP Applicants: More information can also be found on the IQP Resource Page.
- Chat with campus partners
Financial Aid, Health Services, Office of Accessibility Services, and Academic Advising will be available at our Campus Partners Chat on Tues, Sept 15.
- Talk with returned students
We are hosting 2 events with returned students to get your connected to students who went away.

IQP Application Deadline: Monday, October 5 by 9am

For MQP and HUA deadlines, refer to Project Resources

First Year Café

Join us for this special presentation to learn about what you can be doing now, as a first-year student, to prepare for going off-campus. After a brief presentation you can ask questions about next steps. Don't forget to check out the Humanities and Arts opportunities as well!

Global Projects Program on eProjects

All WPI projects, including on– and off-campus opportunities are available on eProjects! Visit eprojects.wpi.edu to begin browsing opportunities.

Once you have logged in with your WPI credentials, you can browse program details including cost, location, housing, etc. You will also complete applications for IQP, MQP or HUA here.

Helpful Resources

For narrowing project center options:

- eProjects (eprojects.wpi.edu) for program information
- Academic Advising to evaluate which terms are feasible for you to go off-campus
- Family to discuss financial and personal considerations

For your application:

- Career Development Center for help with updating your resume
- Writing Center for feedback and writing help on application responses
- Global Experience Office (GEO) for other questions on the application

For preparing to go off campus:

- Financial Aid for information on how off-campus projects may affect your aid package
- Health Services for health concerns related to travel
- Residential Services to learn more about term housing options
- International Studies to learn how off-campus projects can contribute to a major or minor
- Office of Accessibility Services for questions regarding accommodations during travel

These campus partners are participating in the virtual Global Fair!*

IQP: Application Liaison

Eligible students with sophomore status will be assigned an Application Liaison, a member of the Global Experience Office staff who will serve as your point of contact throughout the Off-Campus IQP process. You can contact your Liaison with questions about:

- Global Projects Program eligibility
- IQP Application or Preference Forms
- Accommodations or health concerns related to traveling off-campus
- Any information you could not find on eProjects
