OPTIONAL PRACTICAL TRAINING

24-Month STEM OPT

(Students on F-1 Visa)

On May 10, 2016 the Department of Homeland Security started issuing 24-month long STEM OPT extensions. The following application explains who can apply for this extension and how. Please note that the new rules allow up to 2 STEM extensions, at different degree levels, as well as use of a previous STEM degree as long as it was awarded within the previous 10 years.

Who Can Apply:

You are eligible to apply for the 24-month STEM extension if:

1. You are an F-1 student currently on your 12-month initial OPT who has maintained your F-1 status,
2. You have a STEM degree designated by the STEM Designed Degree Program List, your CIP code can be found on your I-20 next to your major. The code configuration looks like XX.XXXX -OR - you have a STEM degree issued within the last 10 years that you have not yet used to apply for the STEM OPT with and you are currently working in a field relevant to that degree
3. You are working for an E-verified employer (please check with your company's human resources offices to confirm... E-Verify and EIN tax numbers are NOT the same thing)
4. You have not applied for more than 1 previous STEM extension

In Order to maintain F-1 status you must:

1. Keep your passport valid at all times,
2. Refrain from unauthorized employment
3. Not exceed more than 90 days of unemployment during your original 12 months of OPT

When to Apply:

The application for post-completion OPT can be submitted up to 90 days prior to the completion of your current 12 months of OPT. While your application is pending you can keep working while you wait for the new STEM extension—even if your current 12-month OPT has expired—for up to 180 days. It is best to apply for OPT early to receive your EAD work permit in a timely manner. You cannot apply for STEM OPT after your current 12 months of OPT is completed.

OPT: Information for WPI Students on 24 Month STEM OPT

While on Optional Practical Training (OPT) you remain in F-1 non-immigrant status and you must have a valid I-20 form and a valid I-94 card with the D/S notation.

If traveling while on OPT you must have: 1) valid passport, 2) valid F-1 visa for your return, 3) I-20 form signed within the last calendar year, 4) your Employment Authorization Document (EAD Card), and 5) proof of employment/offer letter/paystubs in order for you to re-enter the US in your F-1 STEM OPT status.

If your visa has expired, you can apply for a new F-1 visa from a US Consulate abroad with the same documentation as mentioned above.

Reporting Requirements

While on your 24-months STEM Extension you are required to report the following information to the International House:

Regular changes—Please report through the OPT Update Form on the IH forms page:

- Any change of your US address
- Any change in your employment such as starting a new job, leaving a job, change of company address, change in supervisor, change in compensation, change in job title, etc.
- On STEM OPT you must also submit a new I-983 training plan when these changes occur, you can do this through the OPT Update form link above

STEM OPT Check-Ins (every 6 months)— STEM OPT requires that you also “check in” with the IH every 6 months even if no changes occur. To manage your 6-month check-in dates please input your OPT EAD dates into the date calculator on the IH forms page. There is a 60 day window to submit your check-in which should be reported through the STEM OPT Check-In Form on the IH page.

- A brief video on the IH forms page is available to remind you of the Check-In process.
- At 6 and 18 months you will have to confirm that your home address and employer information are still the same
- At 12 and 24 months you will have to confirm your home address and employer info AND fill out the evaluation from page 5 of the I-983 form.
 - *The 24 month evaluation also serves as the “final evaluation” which you must fill out if you are leaving a job (then you will have to fill a new I-983 form for the new position), or to close out your OPT period if your status is switching to H-1B.

Limited Periods of Unemployment to Maintain Status

- During STEM OPT, F-1 status is dependent upon employment.
- Any of the 90 days that were unused during the 12-month OPT will rollover into the STEM OPT time period, and an additional 60 days will be granted on top of the rolled over time. If unemployment time exceeds this number of unemployment days allowed, student will fail to maintain status.

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have read the above information, including your reporting requirements to the International House. Please keep a copy of this for your files and to serve as a reminder.
