

WPI Yellow Ribbon Program Application Undergraduate students

2017-2018 Academic Year

WPI has entered into an agreement with the Department of Veterans Affairs to participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program during the 2017-2018 academic year. WPI will award a total of 10 undergraduate students a WPI Yellow Ribbon Scholarship up to $5,000 per academic year (fall and spring semesters only). Funds will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis determined by the date of receipt of all completed application requirements. To receive benefits under the Yellow Ribbon Program:

You must be eligible for the Post 9/11 GI Bill at the 100% benefit rate. For benefits information, please visit: http://www.gibill.va.gov/

- 1). You must submit an application for Post 9/11 benefits to the Department of Veterans Affairs. You can do this online at http://www.gibill.va.gov or by calling 1-888-GIBILL1 (1-888-442-4551). You will receive a Certificate of Eligibility explaining the VA's decision regarding your eligibility for the Yellow Ribbon program.
- 2). You must submit a copy of your Certificate of Eligibility to WPI along with this completed application.
